

06 eLMS Activity 1

Arvy Macapagal

BSIT 2A

Arrays are super useful for handling lots of data fast. They make it easy to sort, search, and process information using algorithms, all thanks to their handy index-based system for finding any specific piece of data you need.